RIGHTWAY MPC – LOGISTICS DIVISION If you ask people to describe truck drivers, you will likely rarely hear the word “professional”. Rightway MPC – Logistics Division is starting to change all that.

Whether you need drivers who are professional or you are looking to improve the skills and professionalism of your current pool of drivers, Rightway MPC – Logistics Division aims to provide a complete systems solution for your needs.

To date, over 200 drivers have already been put in place by the Division in its first year of operations.

We view ourselves as young individuals who shell out raw and fresh ideas influenced by our environment and our lifestyle. The experience of the hustle and bustle of the streets of Manila and our world views are what emanates and translates into our pieces of clothing. We are a clothing line inspired by street culture, carrying graphic t-shirts and specializing in the customization of jeans and hoodies. Filthy Grommet steps away from the mainstream trends and creates their own wave of movement of fashion and style.

TAHO de MANILA For those looking for a refreshing and healthy snack or beverage, look no further. As its name suggests, Taho de Manila offers, yes, taho!

But what’s great about it is its texture is smooth and that you can virtually create your own concoction with a variety of fruit and toppings to go with it! You can even have it mildly sweet. Check it out at the food court of Gaisano in Market! Market! More outlets coming soon!
